

Acknowledgments

A great many people contributed to the writing and production of this book, and to all those people we express our sincere thanks.

In particular we would like to thank Audrey Sewell-Smith, Jill Lamble, Lisa Fogliani and Chanel Fenwick who reviewed parts of the manuscript and provided constructive criticisms and suggestions. For her willingness to help with clarification of the content, a special thank you is due to Pauline Charman, Project

Officer for Human Biological Sciences at the Curriculum Council of Western Australia.

We are also grateful for the support and assistance of the editorial staff at McGraw-Hill. In this regard, special thanks are due to Libby Houston for her unfailing support over many years to bring this edition to publication.

Finally we would like to thank our wives and families for their support and understanding during the preparation of the book.
